

Area Scene: Coley tournament set for September

Journal staff

The fourth annual Mike Coley Memorial tournament will have 10 teams competing in two age groups — 48-plus and 58-plus — this year over the Labor Day weekend.

There will be four teams from the Denver area — the Cardinals, Fossils, Shredders and Rockies — three from Sioux Falls — two Pheasants teams and the Jackalopes — one from Custer in the Granite, one from Rapid City and one from Salem.

Games will be played at Pete Lien Field, Fitzgerald Stadium and McKeague starting at 9 a.m. each day, with championship games Sept. 6. Only wood bats will be allowed. Admission is free for all games, and concession stands will be open at Pete Lien field.

Registration closing for football league

Registration for the Hardrocker NFL Youth Flag Football League for grades 1-4 will close Aug. 20. Registration forms are available at any Rapid City area Common Cents store.

Hardrocker players serve as coaches for the league, which has two divisions: first and second grade and third and fourth grade. Call 394-2601 with questions.

Stevens to host activities meeting

Rapid City Stevens High School will host a parent/student activity meeting at 5 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. on Sunday in the Fine Arts Theater.

The 5 p.m. session will be for incoming ninth grade students, new students and their parents. The 6:30 p.m. session will be for returning activity participants and their parents. This meeting is required for all activity participants, as well as Raider parents.

General activity rules and regulations will be discussed, followed by fall sports meetings with the specific fall sport coaches/advisors. Please plan on being to the theater 15 minutes prior to start time in order to complete the paperwork.

Booster club apparel and activity passes will also be available for purchase. If you have any questions, please contact the Stevens High School activities office at 394-4016.

Charity golf tourney at Boulder Canyon

The 14th Annual Deadwood Gaming Association Charity Golf Tournament will take place at the Boulder Canyon Country Club. Registration begins at 7 a.m. for the first flight and 12:30 p.m. for the second flight. A silent auction and prize ceremony will immediately follow each game.

The proceeds will go to charity, with the major beneficiary being NeighborWorks Dakota Home Resources, formally known as Neighborhood Housing Services of the Black Hills.

Since 1998, NeighborWorks Dakota Home Resources has assisted over 800 families with homeownership. NHS is a non-profit that depends on fundraising and grants to assist the community through their worthwhile programs and projects.

For more information, call Vicki Johnson at the Deadwood Chamber of Commerce at 578-1876.